Anzac Day 2015 in Lockhart

A grey and overcast sky on Anzac Day did not prevent an estimated crowd of 500 to 600 people from honouring the efforts of Australians in the service of their country. The March began in Green Street and moved to the Cenotaph on the corner of Hebden and Day Streets.

Lockhart RSL Sub Branch President Stephen Goodwin conducted a moving service. He was supported by readings from the representatives of the two local schools and the Last Post and Reveille by bugler Mr Max Mildren.

Those that attended included representatives from Lockhart Central School, St Joseph's Catholic School, St Francis De Sales Regional College, Kildare Catholic College, Riverina Anglican College, Lockhart Pre School, Lockhart Shire Council, Lockhart Ex-Servicemen’s Club, NSW Fire and Rescue Lockhart Station, Lockhart Bowling Club, Lockhart Red Cross, Brookdale Red Cross, Milbrulong Red Cross, Ex POW Association, Woodhaven, Legacy and Lockhart Senior Citizens.

ARTC (Army Recruit Training Centre, Kapooka) provided a very professional catafalque party.

Members of the Lockhart RSL Sub Branch attended. Max Mildren and Kevin McInty (right) had the privilege of unveiling the plaque in remembrance of the 100th anniversary of the landing at Gallipoli. Others members
St Joseph’s Catholic School News
Well done to our 5/6 footballers who played in the Paul Kelly Cup last month and showed excellent sportsmanship. The boys had three big wins before going down to Holbrook Public in the Grand Final. It was also wonderful to see one of our ex-students helping out with coaching this year, so thanks to Nick Perryman and his father Max for making yourselves available for this job.

Congratulations also to Joe Perryman (pictured below) for his selection into the MacKillop AFL team. He will play in the PSSA AFL State Carnival in Blacktown in May. What a great achievement Joe!

Lockhart Central School News
The Lockhart Central School and Greater Kengal Athletics Carnival will be held on Friday 1st May at the Lockhart Recreation Ground, commencing at 9.15am. All students K-12 will be involved in the carnival.

Congratulations to Mikala Shilo, our 2014 LCS DUX. She received her award recently at our whole school assembly from our Mayor Peter Yates. The Lockhart Shire Council is the sponsor of this annual award. Mikala has commenced study at Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga. Mikala is pictured below being congratulated by Ms Dunne and Mr Yates.

Recently John Goonan visited our school to present us with a certificate in thanks for our efforts in raising money for Catholic Missions in 2014. He told us that per capita, our school raised the most money throughout the whole Diocese, which is a great achievement and a credit to the efforts of the students.

For the remainder of this term, Sporting Schools activities will be AFL on Thursday afternoons with Nick Perryman from 3.30pm to 4.30pm at the school and Athletics on Friday afternoon at the Recreation Ground from 1.30pm to 3pm with Judith Peel, Owen Hogan and Sue McFarlane.

The AIPP Reflections Project

Reflections - Honouring our WWII Veterans is one of the most ambitious and time important photographic projects undertaken in Australia.

With the generous support of AIPP Accredited Photographers and membership, supported by the RSL and Australian War Memorial, “Reflections” aims to photograph the remaining Veterans of WWII to create a significant archive for the nation that reflects a sensitive portrayal of their elderly state and provide a cognizant comparison to the wartime images of young active men and women.

Veterans will receive a commemorative print in an embossed presentation folder to honour their participation and the images archived with the Australian War Memorial in Canberra.

“We will remember them” is a commitment for all Australians to keep. If you want to honour that commitment and demonstrate your support, sign up today, just as they did 75 years ago for a different cause. It is our time to show them how much we respect what they did.

Veterans can register to participate at the above website or speak to a representative at the Lockhart RSL Sub Branch.

Photographers - AIPP Accredited Professional Photographers can also register as a volunteer.

World War Two veteran, Mr Bryan Bowyer, was accompanied by his son Francis and daughter Lyn Hamson at the Anzac Day march in Lockhart.

Once again, Max Mildren displayed his tireless support for many local organisations. As the bugler on Anzac Day, he was at the 9am Cemetery service, then the 10.30am Cenotaph service. In the afternoon he played at the Boree Creek service. On Sunday, he was there again for the Osborne football game Anzac Service. He is pictured above playing his bugle and accompanied by Damon Sly and Liam Smith.
GONE FROM OUR SIGHT - but our memories live on...

Successful Conference Held in Lockhart

On Wednesday 18th March more than 65 branch members of United Hospital Auxiliaries of NSW from across the region travelled to the Lockhart Bowling Club to attend the Regional Conference, which is held every three years. The Conference was opened by Mr Daryl Maguire MP and was attended by the State President Mrs Marion Dickins and the Riverina Regional Representative Mrs Linda Swales from Batlow. Ms Jeanette Ninnis from the NSW Service for the Treatment and Rehabilitation of Torture and Trauma Survivors was the guest speaker and over 40 people had a guided tour of the Lockhart Multi-Purpose Service.

The Milbrulong Red Cross ladies provided a lovely roast lamb lunch and five students from Lockhart Central food technology class provided a professional waiting service. The day was very successful with lots of positive feedback.

ANZAC DAY 2015
ROTARY'S MT KENYA ASCENT FOR WORLD CHARITY

Two weeks ago Colin Wiese left Australia to travel to South Africa and Kenya. Along with other Rotarians, Colin participated in a climb to Point Lenana (4985 metres) on Mt. Kenya.

All participants, including Colin, fully funded their own travel costs associated with the trip. Colin gave the reasons for taking up this challenge as:

1. I wished to share in the fellowship of a group of wonderful Rotarians, who are genuine in wanting to make our world a better place for all humanity.

2. To endeavour to achieve this aim by raising funds for the following charities:

   a) Olaimugi Primary School – this will assist the construction of a school in Kenya for Maasai children who are walking many kilometres to and from their present school through lion infested and elephant infested country.

   b) Coolamon House Clinic – this will provide ongoing support and medication for AIDS infected children at the Haut Bay Clinic in South Africa, which was erected using Australian Rotary funding in 2009/2010.

   c) As we hope to celebrate ANZAC Day with a dawn service at Point Lenana, we will also assist Legacy Australia to provide ongoing support to widows and dependents of Australian Defence Force personnel killed or injured in the line of duty.

These Charities are well worth your support. This Rotary fundraising project has already received approval from RAWCS (Rotary Australia World Community Service) and has been subsequently granted tax deductibility status.

I am hoping you will come on board as a Donor. Business donations will be acknowledged at every opportunity.

Please make your donation by the following:

- Direct Debit Lockhart Rotary Club: BSB. 633000 Account. 120033071
- Cheque to the Rotary Club of Lockhart, PO Box 69, Lockhart 2656

Thank you for your support
Colin Wiese,
President Lockhart Rotary Club

Blood Clots/Stroke - They Now Have a Fourth Indicator, the Tongue

During a BBQ, a woman stumbled and took a little fall - she assured everyone that she was fine (they offered to call paramedics) ...she said she had just tripped over a brick because of her new shoes.

They got her cleaned up and got her a new plate of food. While she appeared a bit shaken up, Jane went about enjoying herself the rest of the evening.

Jane's husband called later telling everyone that his wife had been taken to the hospital - (at 6:00 pm, Jane passed away.) She had suffered a stroke at the BBQ. Had they known how to identify the signs of a stroke, perhaps Jane would be with us today. Some people don't die after a stroke but they end up in a helpless, hopeless condition instead.

A neurologist says that if he can get to a stroke victim within 3 hours, he can totally reverse the effects of a stroke... totally. He said the trick was getting a stroke recognized, diagnosed, and then getting the patient medically cared for within 3 hours, which is tough.

RECOGNIZING A STROKE

The '3' steps to remember are STR.

Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack of awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke.

Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking three simple questions:

S *Ask the individual to SMILE.

T  *Ask the person to TALK and SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE (Coherently) (i.e. Chicken Soup)

R  *Ask him or her to RAISE BOTH ARMS.

If he or she has trouble with ANY ONE of these tasks, call the emergency number 000 immediately and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher.

A New Sign of a Stroke -------- Stick out Your Tongue! If the tongue is 'crooked', if it goes to one side or the other, that is also an indication of a stroke.

Support for People with a Disability
Catherine Velthuis has been appointed by Intereach as a Linker under the Ability Links NSW (ALNSW) program. Ability Links provide people with disability, aged 9 to 64, their families and carers, with a locally based first point of contact to access resources and opportunities in their local communities.

Linkers have three main roles:
1. To work with people with disability and their families and carers to make their own choices and to realise those choices in their lives, through accessing the knowledge, resources and opportunities in their communities.
2. To promote the rights of people with disability to live inclusive lives as valued and equal members of their community.
3. To build capacity within communities to expand inclusion of people with disabilities.

Intereach have rolled out the Ability Links program across the Riverina/Murray. Catherine will be working with people in the communities of Lockhart and Wagga Wagga Shires.

For more information contact Wagga 69328300 or email abilitylinks@intereach.com.au

NBN Tower has been Installed
The new tower at the Lockhart Recreation Ground is probably one of the tallest structures inside the town. Much interest was created when the workmen put the tower together, with the assistance of a large crane. Hopefully it means faster internet speeds will arrive in the near future to make communication easier for residents and business owners.
Any ideas on the reason why the centre section has not been painted correctly?

Free whooping cough vaccinations for some women

NSW Health will now provide free vaccinations against pertussis (whooping cough) to pregnant women during their third trimester, after evidence showed it lessened the risk of infants catching the potentially fatal infection.

Mrs Tracey Oakman, Director Public Health from the Murrumbidgee Local Health District said NSW Health will fund the new initiative during the current outbreak of whooping cough.

"We urge pregnant women to ensure they are vaccinated in their third trimester, ideally at 28-32 weeks, as it offers the best protection for babies until their first vaccination at six to eight weeks of age," said Mrs Oakman.

The NHMRC, which is responsible for endorsing the Australian Immunisation Handbook, updated its advice after a review of available evidence showed that immunising pregnant mothers in the third trimester significantly reduces the incidence of whooping cough in newborn babies, and therefore lessens the risk of infant death.

"Whooping cough vaccination during pregnancy has been studied in more than 37,000 women in the United States and the United Kingdom and is shown to be very safe" said Mrs Oakman.

"Studies in the UK, United States and Israel provide evidence that the best way to protect infants too young to be vaccinated themselves, who are at highest risk of morbidity and mortality, is through vaccinating the mother during pregnancy."

"It is vital that parents also ensure all their children are up to date with their vaccinations to minimise the risk of whooping cough circulating in the family. Adults in close contact with young babies should also discuss the benefits of the vaccine, which is available on prescription, with their GP."

"Whooping cough is easily spread to new babies, so it's important to keep people with coughs away from them, in case they have whooping cough or other nasty infections," she said.

Pertussis disease notifications in NSW have been increasing since mid-2014.

The Murrumbidgee Local Health District had 249 pertussis notifications in 2014, and 56 this year so far.

"Epidemics of pertussis occur about every three to four years, as community immunity wears down. The last outbreak was in early 2012 and we are seeing the kinds of numbers that may indicate be heading towards another epidemic," said Mrs Oakman.

Pertussis is a serious respiratory infection that causes a long coughing illness. In babies, the infection can sometimes lead to pneumonia and occasionally brain damage, and can be life threatening.

Book Review

'This is a book about the human aspects of life on the land - the stories of success and failure, life and love, of hardship and celebration - and the passion and gritty determination that characterised every family I interviewed.'

Author Deb Hunt sets out to discover what makes Australian farming families tick. She travels tens of thousands of kilometres to properties at either end of the country, from a vast, dusty cattle run in outback Queensland to the wheat belt of Western Australia and dairy and sheep farms in Tasmania. She introduces us to eight families who survive, even thrive, on the land despite fires, floods, personal hardship and uncertain economic times.

We see a different sort of family life, where the kids are expected to pitch in, the classroom is often the kitchen table, the nearest maternity hospital is a five-hour drive, and generations live and work side by side. We meet the French family, whose connection to the bush goes back seven generations, Philip the Philosopher, who by 29 was managing a property of more than one million hectares carrying 20,000 head of cattle, and the outspoken Roma Britnell, who was awarded Australian Rural Woman of the Year in 2009.

Inspiring, moving and sometimes challenging, these stories provide a window into a way of life that defines the Australian spirit at its best.

clancy @ theoverflow

I had written him a text,
Which I'd sent, hoping the next
Time he came in mobile coverage
He'd have time to say hello.
But I'd heard he'd lost his iPhone,
So I emailed him from my phone,
Just addressed, on spec, as follows:
clancy@theoverflow

And the answer - redirected -
Wasn't quite what I'd expected
And it wasn't from the shearing mate
Who'd answered once before.
His ISP provider wrote it
And verbatim I will quote it:
'This account has been suspended:
You won't hear from him no more.'

In my wild erratic fancy
Visions come to me of Clancy:
Out of reach of mobile coverage
Where the Western rivers flow.
Instead of tapping on the small screen,
He'd be camping by the tall green
River gums - a pleasure
That the town folk never know.

Well, the bush has friends to meet him
But the rest of us can't greet him:
Out there, even Telstra's network
Doesn't give you any bars.
He can't blog the vision splendid
Of the sunlit plains extended
Or tweet the wondrous glory
Of the everlasting stars.

I am sitting at the keyboard
And I'm too stressed out to be bored
As I answer all the emails
By the deadlines they contain
While my screen fills with promotions
For 'V1aggra' and strange potions
And announcements of the million-dollar
Prizes I can claim.

But the looming deadlines haunt me
And their harrying senders taunt me
That they need response this evening
For tomorrow is too late!
But their texts, too quickly ended,
Often can't be comprehended
For their writers have no time to think –
They have no time to wait.

And I sometimes rather fancy
That I'd like to trade with Clancy:
Just set up an email bouncer
Saying 'Sorry, had to go.'
While he faced in an inbox jamming
Up with deadlines and with spamming
As he signed off every message:
